

February 3, 2008

Choir,

There is now a mostly full tentative anthem schedule for February and March found in the link to the left. We will be singing with the children as they sing "Like As a Father" by Luigi Cherubini, which we have sung in the past. We will also repeat the Hal Hopson "On Humble Beast" with the children on Palm Sunday.

There is a Lenten Meditation booklet in Allison's office with themes built around the Irish hymn "St. Patrick's Breastplate", otherwise known as "I Sing As I Arise Today". I am hoping to use this wonderful hymn in a number of ways this Lenten season.

I will be inviting various youth to join us for Mystery Night on Feb. 23 in singing - those who might not otherwise be occupied in the presentation of the play.

Also, all of us will be needing to pitch in and help with non-musical tasks that night - serving food, preparing food, cleanup, etc. We need to do this because we are splitting the funds being raised. I will speak about this plan further at choir practice soon.

Good job to the men's chorus this morning!

Peace,

Mark
