

December 29, 2007

Choir,

Many, many blessings and thanks for a job well, well done this past Christmas Eve! I know it was tough getting rehearsals worked in with the winter weather, but you all did yeoman's work with the time we had, and I thank you all from the bottom of my heart.

Thank you!

We will be back to "normal" rehearsals this coming Thursday, Jan 3, as we prepare for the Sunday where Kathy McAdams will be our guest preacher.

I will put more on this page in a couple of days when I am able to determine what we shall be working on in the next few months.

God Bless,

Mark

PS Choir,

One more bit of news - to try and make communication even better, I will be adopting a procedure that Carlos has used to great advantage utilizing YAHOO GROUPS. In a nutshell, you will be receiving an email from me through yahoo groups sometime this week. It will invite you to join the group. Just follow all prompts and say yes. This will be a feature that will allow me to communicate much faster and more regularly with you all in the future.

I'll be in touch!

Mark