Dear Choir,

I continue to be amazed at how fast time seems to fly - I had every good intention of updating this site right after Christmas, and in some ways, it still seems like it's just after Christmas . . .

Next Sunday, we are singing "Seasons of Love" from RENT, and here is the promised link to the song from the Broadway recording. Link to "Seasons of Love" . You will note that the calendar to the left, the Anthem tentative schedule is still in process of being filled out. I am still in the process of coordinating themes with Carlos and Jed. Do continue to keep Feb. 23 in the evening on the calendar for the Mystery Theater with the Youth.

More very soon,

Mark
