

November 5, 2007

Dear Choir,

Thank you to those who have checked regularly on this site

– MY APOLOGIES that I have goofed in not keeping everything I need to tell you up to date!!!!!!

EXCEPT FOR THIS WEEK!!!

Due to the rehearsal with the GSSO for Saturday evening's concert, we will stop rehearsal at 8:45 this week.

My intention is to try my hardest to not keep this extra schedule going past the Thursday before Thanksgiving! If we can do this extra work now, I am even going to try to lighten the load, as it were, into December when we are all going respectfully nuts over our schedules.

It sounded good this past Sunday – I was pleased given that we had so many of our group who couldn't be there. I will, however, play you the recording I made – you may be somewhat surprised upon hearing it from a distance that some of what I continually “harp” on (no pun intended, Katie . . .) are evident when you hear the sound from a distance, such as breath support, open vowels, etc.

We can use this recording as a way to continually improve our offerings made on behalf of the congregation to God each Sunday morning.

Thank you all so much for your hard work – it means a great deal to me personally!

Mark