Dear Choir,

I will be saving past letters in the form of a link above for any who would like to reference them.

Thank you all for a good rehearsal this evening. I know that we had a much larger amount of discussion and talking than usual tonight, and I do hope that you all understand the spirit in which all of the talk was made. Yes, we have a fair amount of choir "business" to discuss, and the easiest way is at rehearsal. I am going to try and figure out a way in which we can have discussion right here on this website - where it will be possible for choir members to log on and write thoughts that they would like to share with everyone in the choir. More on this soon when I can learn how to set it up!

This year, we also have an amazing opportunity to become closer to each other through our sharing, and I would like for us to think of ways in which this kind of growing closer together may be done without diminishing our music making and our practice.

Any ideas? I do think a small amount of sharing each week will be one way to explore the church's theme of "Blessed Lives, Hungry Hearts". Let's each pray about this idea, for I know that God will lead us into a new relationship with God and with each other. That is certainly part of my prayer - that we may become closer to each other as we grow closer to God.

We sing "Love Alone" this Sunday! See you all at 9:00 AM.

In Christ,

Mark
